

Providing Help. Creating Hope.

Catholic Charities West Virginia (CCWVa) is a non-profit organization that provides a variety of social services to West Virginians, regardless of their religious, social or economic backgrounds. Founded in 1931 by the Diocese of Wheeling, CCWVa has become one of the largest social service providers in the state, serving thousands through programs that reach out to the unborn, children, parents, refugees, immigrants, elderly, disabled, victims of disaster and victims of poverty and injustice.

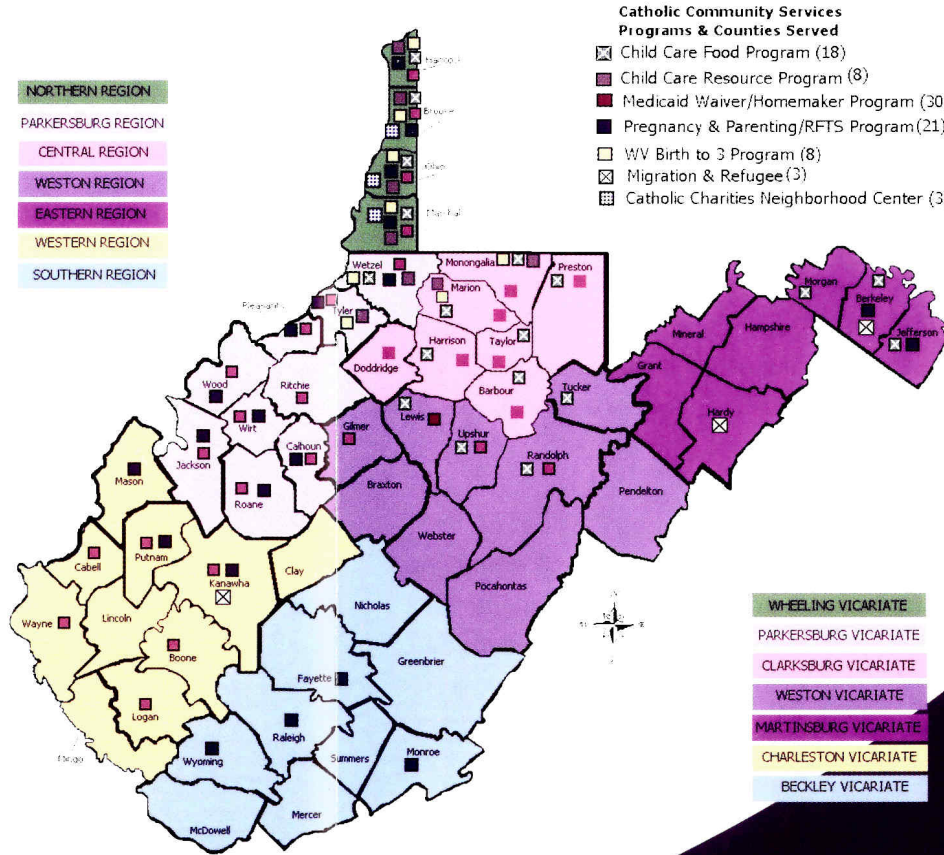

Reflecting the state's geographic diversity, CCWVa is comprised of seven regions led by local staff and volunteers. Regional directors are empowered to seek support and launch new programs that better meet the needs of particular communities through donations, grants, educational opportunities and the support of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, the administrative staff of CCWVa and Catholic Charities USA.

Locations

The central offices of CCWVa are located in Wheeling, W.Va. on the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston's campus. There are seven regional offices throughout the state and each offers services to the poor at the local level. The need for our services is made evident by the large number of clients we serve.

CCWVa is known for being a provider of quality social services. Since 1931, we have grown to encompass the entire state providing services and programs that meet the needs of the least among us. Our employees are committed, hard-working, helpful and educated.

Message From the Director

I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for your interest in Catholic Charities West Virginia. As a member agency of Catholic Charities USA, we have been blessed to be in the service of charity since our founding in 1931.

We celebrate a rich history of service to the people of West Virginia, and we celebrate our gratitude for the many people – clients, co-workers and friends – who have graced our lives along the way.

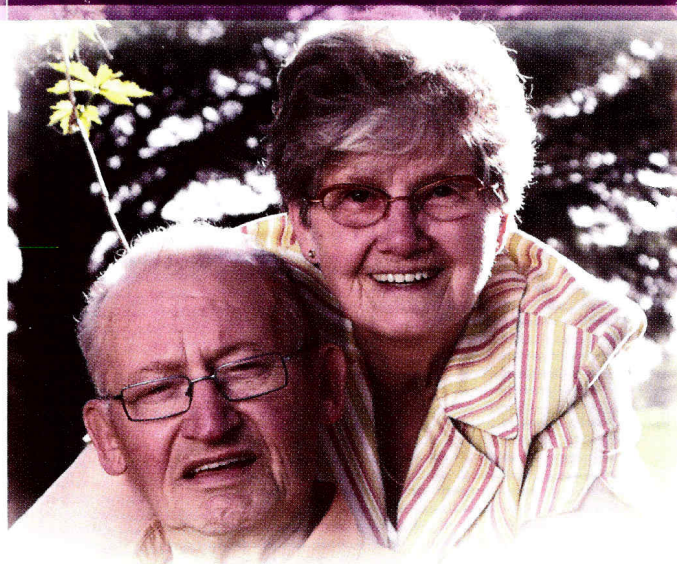

Our goal is to root ourselves in the teaching of charity, to read the signs of the times and to be continually learning. This education will direct our path into each new area of service that our call to charity might lead us.

I hope that you will join us as we continue to follow the command of Jesus to love one another as He has loved us. Please take some time to learn more about our service of charity.

We invite you to come visit us in one of our many outreach offices across the state. Come walk our mountains and visit our valleys and be grateful for the opportunity to serve.

Sister Mary Lou

Executive Director
Catholic Charities West Virginia

Touching Lives

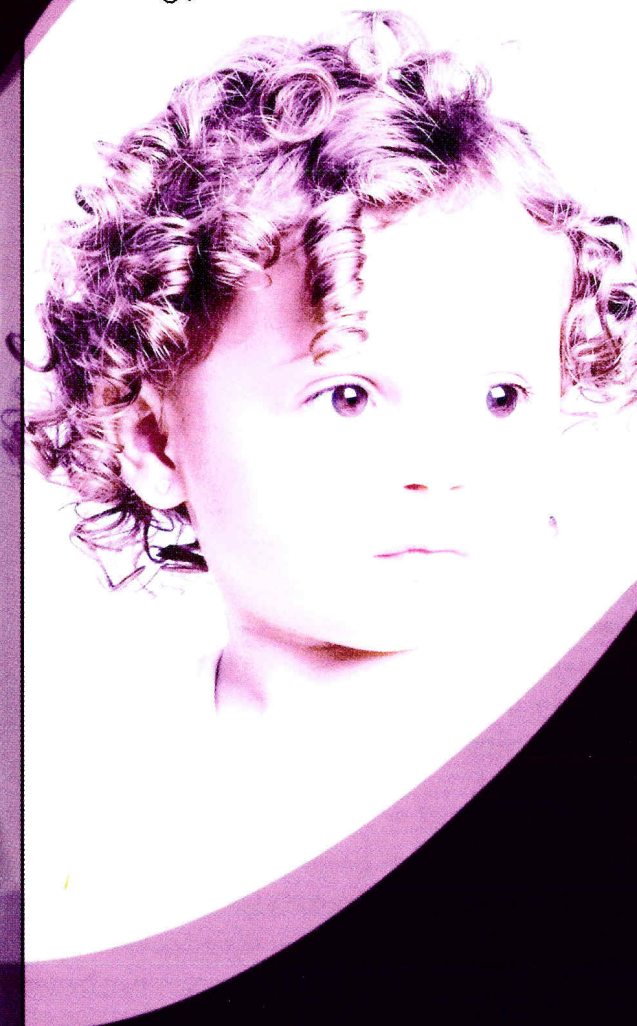

The goal of Catholic Charities West Virginia is to witness the love God has for all people through action and services to people in need.

As a member agency of Catholic Charities USA, we share its mission to provide service to people in need, to advocate justice in social structures and to call the entire Church and other people of good will to do the same.

Catholic Charities has touched the lives of thousands of West Virginians through emergency assistance, child and adult nutrition programs, disaster relief, food distribution, services for the homeless, pregnancy and parenting services, children and adolescent programs, adult literacy programs and senior outreach services.
